"After the break caused by the pandemic, we feel that visitors are really embracing the trade fair again. They want to touch, feel and try things out live on site, and that's incredibly fun! We would never be able to reach so many people in one place otherwise. This trade fair is simply vital for us!"

Jörg Reh
Manager of Sales

"Babini Hamburg was our first trade fair ever. After two days, we were already completely sold out.

And, even better, a large retailer noticed us and listed us. It couldn't be better! We'll be back in full force in 2024."

FEEDBACK FROM OUR COMMUNITY

Julia, 28

'A huge selection of baby carriers with excellent advice! Brilliant! Lovely start-up stands and great things you don't usually see. Great breastfeeding and resting facilities.'

Robin, 34

'I gained a favourable impression of many excellent new products, and the live presentations were highly informative for me.'

Sarah, 32

'We had chosen a pram online. At the fair, we compared different models and, thanks to the excellent advice we received, decided on a different model and bought it. It's great that so many suppliers are there to offer advice.'
